

Meeting the needs of our community

The effect of our library ripples
through our community ...
making people's lives better and
our community stronger.

Our library is a place where people can:

- Satisfy their curiosity
- Brush up on their skills
- Explore new opportunities
- Find reliable, accurate information
- Connect with other people

We're focusing on creating a friendly space where everyone feels welcome and comfortable and where people have a place to connect with each other.

We're happy to talk with you about how our library can be part of your story.

Rocky Mountain House Public Library

Changing lives
one story at a time.

That's the library effect.

Our library connects people to the digital world

We provide community residents with access to free high-speed Internet.

In 2012, our 17 computers were used for 426 hours each week.

Library users can download ebooks, movies, music and magazines from our digital collection.

Our digital collection includes:

- ebooks and eAudiobooks
- Magazine and newspaper articles
- Music: millions of tracks
- Movies: access to the latest blockbusters

Gives me access to lots of material in different formats.
